

Philosophy of Management 2018 Programme

Business School

Philosophy of Management 2018 - Programme

Monday 25 June - afternoon

13.00: Registration

13.30: Welcome, Journal, and Opening

14.00-16.00: Sessions

Room 1: Responsible Innovation

Job Timmermans & Vincent Blok (18-51)

A hermeneutic reflection on the paradigm-level assumptions underlying RRI.

Daniele Ruggiu (18-41)

Inescapable frameworks: Ethics of care, ethics of rights and the responsible research and innovation model.

Gabriel J Costello (18-14)

Aristotle's phronesis: putting some meat on the philosophy of innovation.

Room 2: Epistemology

Soraia Schutel & Eugenio Pedrozo (18-29)

A new comprehension of human being for a new organizational theory and practice.

Miriam Green (18-22)

Is post-modernism to blame for our post-truth world?

Friedrich Glauner (18-26)

When sociopaths speak of love. The riddle of values in management theory and practice.

16.00-16.30: Coffee & Tea

16.30-18.00: Sessions

Room 1: Ancient Philosophies

David C Bauman (18-21)

Socrates' Meno for managers: Can virtue be taught?

Alicia Hennig & Matthias Niedenführ (18-50)

Bringing ethics back to management: Perspectives from Confucianism and Daoism.

Business School

Philosophy of Management 2018 - Programme

Tuesday 26 June - morning

09.00-11.00: Sessions

Room 1: Responsible Innovation

Vincent Blok (18-52)

The philosophy of innovation.

Johan Rochel & Michel Bourbon (18-32)

Synergies in innovation: Mapping and structuring the emerging field of innovation ethics.

Eda Keskin (18-42)

Responsible innovation and smart cities.

Room 2: Dialogue

Sira Abenoza Gonzalez (18-38)

We need to talk: an exploration on why we don't dialogue as much as we should.

Marja-Liisa Kakkuri-Knuuttila (18-35)

What may we learn in dialogue?

Sira Abenoza Gonzalez (18-39)

Teaching how to dialogue: transforming duty into reality.

11.00-11.30: Coffee & Tea

11.30-13.00: Sessions

Room 1: Responsible Innovation

Harald Stelzer (18-40)

The normative evaluation of climate engineering.

Johann Jakob Häußermann (18-28)

Extending the research agenda: Towards an integration of normative economics and innovation ethics.

Room 2: Ethics

Pepe Lee Chang (18-23)

When should the organization be expected to punish employees' extra-organizational activities?

Eva Tsahuridu (18-45)

Disclosing clients' illegal activities: shall we praise the accountant?

13.00-14.00: Lunch

Business School

Philosophy of Management 2018 - Programme

Tuesday 26 June - afternoon

14.00-16.00: Sessions

Room 1: Miscellaneous

David Wilson (18-44)

How not to be a good Machiavellian.

Donald Norberg (18-06)

Familiar places or liminal spaces? Using de Certeau and Turner to examine codification and resilience in corporate governance.

Yotam Lurie (18-48)

If management is neither a profession nor a science: Drucker revisited.

16.00-16.30: Coffee & Tea

16.30-18.00: Socratic Dialogue - Kristof Van Rossem

Dinner at The Trafalgar

Business School

Philosophy of Management 2018 - Programme

Wednesday 27 June - morning

9.00-11.00: Sessions

Room 1: Management Education

Hans Bennik (18-58)

Organizational learning and anxiety

Leslie E Sekerka (18-11)

Returning to Kantian principles: Fostering respect by embracing tribal-collectivism in management education.

Gabriel J Costello (18-09)

Erasmus, Luther and the Free Will debate: Influencing the philosophy of management 500 years on.

11.00-11.30: Coffee & Tea

11.30-13.00: Sessions

Room 1: Ecological Management

Jelle van Baardewijk & Johan Wempe (18-18)

An ethical fundament for the ecological business model: From stakeholder model to the communitarian approach.

Amsale Kassahun Temesgen, Vivi Storsletten & Ove Jakobsen (18-30)

Circular economy: Reducing negative symptoms or increasing positive synergy? It depends on ontology and epistemology.

Room 2: Aesthetics

Wenjin Dai & Alicia Henning (18-54)

The Aesthetics of Virtue: Exploring Chinese Thinking through Traditional Chinese Paintings.

13.00-14.00: Lunch

Business School

Philosophy of Management 2018 - Programme

Wednesday 27 June - afternoon

14.00-16.00: Sessions

Room 1: Ecological Management

Saskia van den Muijsenberg & Vincent Blok (18-33)

Towards a normative framework for conducting business in the circular economy.

Milutin Stojanovic (18-36)

A conceptualization of ecological management.

Room 2: Ethics

Marian Eabrasu (18-43)

A philosophical critique of the obligation to comply with the law in CSR.

Andrew Cullison (18-53)

Skill development equity and the ethics of delegation.

Vanessa Lam (18-03)

Caring for stakeholders: An ethics of care approach to stakeholder theory.

16.00-16.30: Coffee & Tea

16.30-18.00: Keynote - Kai Alhanen - Dialogue, power and leadership

Dinner - Business School BBQ

Business School

Philosophy of Management 2018 - Programme

Thursday 28 June - morning

9.00-10.30: Sessions

Room 1: Miscellaneous

Gareth Craze (18-08)

Sweet talk: The ethical imperative of employee wellness initiatives and health coaching to reduce sugar consumption in the workplace.

Loek Schönbeck (18-10)

Humanity and community.

Room 2: Ancient Philosophies

Anke Turner, Subhasis Chakrabarti & Joanna Rowe (18-34)

Caring entrepreneurship in Vedanta philosophy: Improving stakeholder relations through inner transformation.

Karin Bauer (18-16)

Interconnectedness and the self in Indian thought and the implications for stakeholder theory.

10.30-11.00: Coffee & Tea

11.00-12.30: Sessions

Room 1: Miscellaneous

David Shaw (18-55)

On Misunderstanding Heraclitus: The Justice of Organisation Structure.

Tuomo Peltonen (18-46)

Towards a philosophical spirituality of organization in the footsteps of Plato and Eric Voegelin.

12.30: Farewell and Conference End

Business School