GETTING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF GREENWICH

DOCKLANDS LIGHT RAILWAY (DLR)

Cutty Sark DLR Station is located in the heart of Greenwich town centre a two minute walk to the campus West Gate entrance. Direct services run from Bank, Canary Wharf, Lewisham and Stratford and easy connections are available from Tower Gateway, Beckton and London City Airport. Please refer to the Greenwich Campus Plan and the Campus Explorer for help with directions to the campus.

TRAINS - NATIONAL RAIL

Southeastern provides the services to and from Greenwich. From Central London there are direct trains from Cannon Street and London Bridge. From the east services operate from Dartford. There are also direct services from Medway towns to Lewisham linked to Greenwich by the DLR. There are two stations close to the campus. 1) Greenwich Station: to the west of the town centre on Greenwich High Road and a 10 minute walk from the campus West Gate entrance, and 2) Maze Hill Station: to the east of the town centre and around 5 minutes walk to the campus East Gate entrance.

LONDON UNDERGROUND (TUBE)

For connections from the Tube network, the quickest option is to alight at Canary Wharf station on the Jubilee Line and get a DLR Lewisham bound train to Cutty Sark station.

About GREENWICH POLITICAL ECONOMY RESEARCH CENTRE - GPERC

GPERC brings together an innovative group of researchers who want to expand the knowledge frontier by challenging orthodoxies in economic and social science research. The aim of GPERC is to encourage interdisciplinary analysis of the linkages between institutions, power structures and economic dynamics with a view to:

- Enhance knowledge of the pressing problems of our time such as inequalities, unemployment, climate change, energy crisis, housing crisis, care deficit, ageing, productivity, innovation, and technological change;
- Expand the range of evidence-informed and progressive options for policy and practice.
