Inclusion Calendar

Dear Colleagues

Inclusion is a university core value. To support this, we are proud to launch a new PDF calendar which will promote, commemorate, and celebrate our university by providing information on faiths, festivals, observances, culture and wellbeing.

In addition, you will also be able to view and add these dates to your outlook calendar by clicking “Add Calendar”. To see the University of Greenwich Inclusion Calendar (please ensure the address book is defaulted to Global Address List)

We hope all staff and students will find the benefits from this calendar include:

- having important information on dates, holidays and festivals which can be book marked and will enable you to get involved with events, or to celebrate in your own way
- supporting diversity, culture and equality initiatives for personal development
- promoting awareness of diversity of the university.

Please note the dates featured are not an exhaustive list and we welcome suggestions of significant dates which we can consider for next year's calendar. Additionally, it should be noted some dates for religious festivals will be estimates and may vary due to international variations or lunar cycles.
