- Students registered on a taught or postgraduate research programme that is awarded and wholly delivered by the University of Greenwich
- Students registered on a Distance Learning programme delivered by the University of Greenwich
- Students registered on a taught dual degree programme that is awarded by the University of Greenwich while they are being taught at the University of Greenwich.

WHEN SHOULD I APPEAL?

Withdrawal appeal forms must be completed in full and submitted, with evidence in support of your appeal, within 14 calendar days of the email notification of withdrawal.

WHAT DO I NEED TO SAY ON THE APPEAL FORM?

You must include in your appeal all the information that you wish to be considered as any information that is left out may not be able to be considered at a later stage. Whilst we need all the relevant information to consider your appeal, please do not assume that your case will be strengthened simply by the length of your submission or the quantity of evidence that you submit.

Original evidence must be provided in support of your appeal and listed on the appeal form, and must be in English or accompanied by a certified translation. There may be exceptional circumstances in which evidence cannot be provided at that time, in which case you should specify the date on which it can be provided and outline the evidence to be supplied; this should normally be no later than 7 calendar days after submission of the appeal form.

Your appeal cannot be considered until the listed evidence is provided. If you have previously been in contact with the University Counselling Services about any issues raised in your appeal or matters that may have a bearing upon it, it may be appropriate to consult them.

HOW DO I SUBMIT MY APPEAL?

Your appeal form and documentary evidence should be emailed to:
engagementappeals@greenwich.ac.uk

Please ensure you keep a copy of the form for your records.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN NEXT?

You will receive an acknowledgement email informing you that the investigation into your appeal has begun.

Please note, your appeal may not be accepted if you have submitted your form outside of the stipulated deadline without good reason.

MY APPEAL HAS BEEN ACCEPTED, WHAT HAPPENS NOW?

If your appeal is accepted, your appeal will be forwarded to the Faculty to check that Faculty records are accurate. The Faculty will then have 21 calendar days to provide a response.

The Faculty may decide to either:

- a) Dismiss the appeal if they do not think that you have provided a good enough explanation or substantial evidence to support a change of decision. The appeal procedure within the University will be at an end, in which case the you will be given the reasons for the decision in writing.
- b) Uphold the appeal and request Student & Academic Services to reinstate your registration with or without a recommendation that you be granted a retrospective period of authorised absence. You may told that you need to meet certain conditions of reinstatement before you can return to your studies.
- c) To rescind the withdrawal decision and offer a period of interruption in light of the issues which you raised in your appeal submission. If you reject this offer, the original withdrawal decision will stand.
- d) To refer your appeal to a meeting of the Academic Appeals Committee, in which case the procedure outlined in Sections 7 and 8 of the Academic Appeals Procedure will apply.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN THE UNIVERSITY HAS COMPLETED ITS APPEAL PROCEDURES?

On completion of the appeal procedure, you will receive a Completion of Procedures statement, signifying that the University considers the appeal process to be complete.

If you feel that the outcome of your appeal is unreasonable in relation to the evidence submitted, you may request a review from the Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education (OIA), within twelve months of the issue of the Completion of Procedures statement. Information regarding this is on the OIA website: <http://www.oiahe.org.uk>
